WHEREAS, organ and tissue donation is a process which allows for individuals in need to have a chance for life; and

WHEREAS, an organ and tissue donor registry will provide a centralized resource for providing vital information regarding organ and tissue donors; and

WHEREAS, the implementation and operation of an organ and tissue donor registry may also be of benefit for law enforcement officers and agencies across the state of Tennessee in their need for assistance on the information contained in the driver's license history data base; now, therefore,

MONDAY, MARCH 19, 1990 -- SEVENTY-NINTH LEGISLATIVE DAY

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

(1) The department of safety shall compile and maintain an organ and tissue donor registry to identify each Tennessean who has notified the department of his or her desire to be considered as a potential organ or tissue donor. Without regard to hour or day, the information within such registry shall be continuously available for inquiries by organ and tissue donor service agencies. The department shall promptly send desired donor information, including duplicated copies of individual organ and tissue donor statements on file with the department, to the inquiring agency.

(2) In accordance with the provisions of the uniform administrative procedures act, Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 4, Chapter 5, the commissioner of safety shall by rule establish such policies and procedures as may be necessary to ensure the efficient and effective operation and maintenance of the organ and tissue donor registry. Such rules shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, policies and procedures by which Tennesseans may become identified within the registry of donors.

(b) The department of safety shall engage in public information and other activities to encourage all Tennesseans to become organ and tissue donors and to be so identified within the organ and tissue donor registry. Furthermore, in order to encourage and promote the highest level of organ and tissue donorship within the state, the commissioner of safety shall periodically coordinate and convene strategy and planning meetings for representatives of the department of commerce and insurance, the department of education, the department of health and environment, Tennessee organ and tissue donor service agencies, Tennessee hospitals, Tennessee physicians' organizations, as well as other organizations and entities which seek to promote and encourage organ and tissue donorship within the state.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1990, the public welfare requiring it.

On motion, Amendment No. 2 was adopted.
